2020 - 2021 Campus Life Mentor | Position Description

Office of Orientation & Transition | Mission Statement
The Office of Orientation & Transition welcomes each new University of Utah student and their family and connects them to personalized support and meaningful opportunities by promoting academic excellence and successful transitions.

The Office of Orientation & Transition provides key programs and activities focused on orientation, transition, and retention. These include intentional orientation and welcome programs, first-year and second-year student programs, transfer student programs, parent and family programs, and communications.

Core Values
Embrace and Drive Change | Work as a Team, Build a Family
Pursue Growth and Learning | Advocate for Social Justice

About Us
To support these efforts, The Office of Orientation & Transition hires undergraduate peer mentors who serve as resources and role models to new students by helping them transition and acclimate to the University of Utah during their first year.

Campus Life Mentor Overview
The Campus Life Mentor (CLM) position provides students the unique opportunity to mentor First-Year students at the University of Utah. CLMs are hired to ease the transition of new first-year students. The program is designed to engage first-year students with the University of Utah and surrounding campus community during their first year. CLMs aid in the academic, social, and cultural acclimation to the University. CLMs provide individualized, holistic support to their mentees by building genuine relationships.

Campus Life Mentor | Mission Statement
To provide new students with an immediate connection to the University of Utah by pairing them with trained mentors who provide guidance, resources, advice, and support.

CLMs are official representatives of The Office of Orientation & Transition and the University of Utah; therefore, CLMs should act accordingly, as student leaders with a high standard of professionalism and good judgment. CLM’s are supervised by an Assistant Director & Graduate Assistant.
